TO DR. I. S. INGRAM

Who has devoted more than 50 years of his life to education and whose work in this field has earned him the respect and admiration of colleagues throughout the state and the nation . . .

Under whose leadership this institution has achieved unparalleled progress, having grown from high school to junior college to senior college . . .

Who has also built a record of civic, religious and business service . . .

Who has the happy faculty of inspiring those about him to greater heights . . .

Whose friendship and counsel is a cherished possession of all who have been associated with him . . .

Who exemplifies so vividly those sterling qualities which we as young people are trying to develop and to live by . . .

Whose wife, the late Martha Munro Ingram, remains on this campus a symbol of the finer things of life . . .

Who in his 40 years as principal and president of this institution has all the while served and been concerned about his fellow man in all walks of life . . .

To this man, this friend, we dedicate this volume, the Chieftain of 1960.

IRVINE SULLIVAN INGRAM

PROLOGUE

The year 1960 has brought many changes to West Georgia College. Perhaps the most prominent among the material changes was the completion of a building program. Through this program, several new buildings were erected.

The modern Education Building has proved an invaluable asset to both students and faculty.

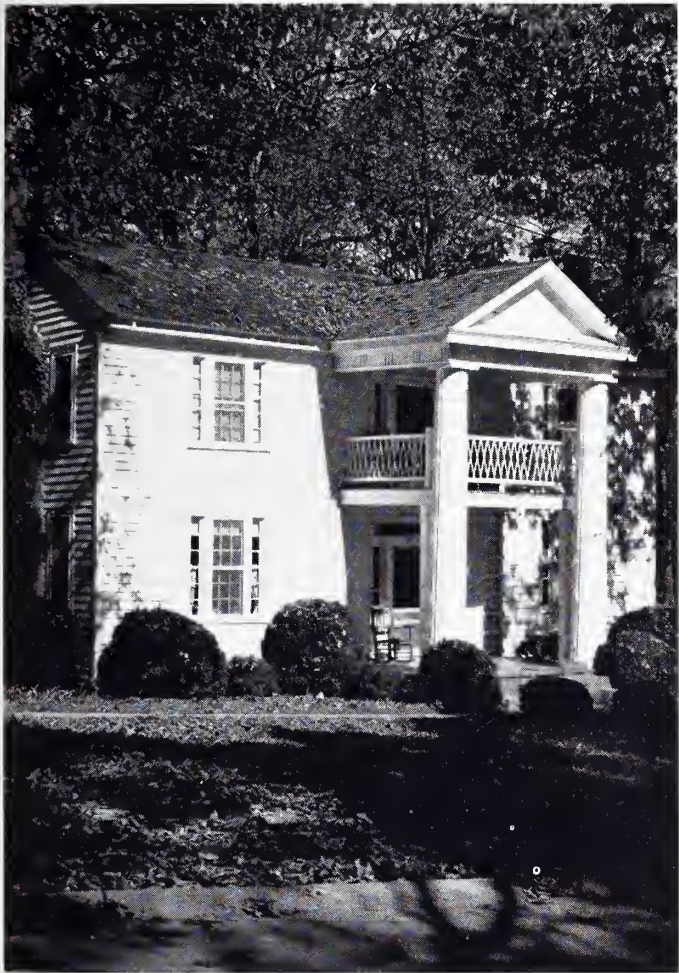

The annex to Mandeville Dormitory provided housing for 60 girls, as well as a well-equipped clinic.

Other significant changes were the extensive addition to the library and the new maintenance warehouse.

These new buildings are proof of the ever growing, ever changing needs of any college, and particularly West Georgia as it continues to progress and take its place among the top institutions of higher education in the state.

One cannot think of West Georgia without thinking of the stately old Administration Building with its gleaming white columns.

The Gunn House, with its picturesque surroundings, is an example of many of the earlier structures still adding their usefulness and beauty to the campus.

The library, now that it has been enlarged and refurbished, provides comfortable and adequate space, which is conducive to study and research.

One of the most outstanding events of the year, especially for Freshmen, is their initiation during Rat Week.

Many dances are held throughout the year; significant among them this year were the Halloween Ball and the Sweetheart Dance.

These activities give the students an opportunity to enjoy themselves and to contribute to their social and cultural development.

Ask any West Georgia student where the most beautiful place in the springtime is, and his answer will be —West Georgia. The campus of West Georgia is one of the most attractive in the South.

Assembly programs are a familiar part of the student's life.

Graduation is the ultimate goal of the college student.

The student lounge at 10:00 a.m. is one of the liveliest of places. Students converge for conversations, snacks, cards, or perhaps a break from studying.

In the classroom, the student seeks knowledge through constant study and a desire to learn.

An infirmity visit may interrupt a day's activities.

Night time finds the students indulging in varied activities. Some retire to their rooms for serious study, while others find dancing in the student lounge a pleasant diversion.

Nathan, the night watchman, is a familiar part of West Georgia, as he faithfully makes the rounds of the campus.

MISS CHIEFTAIN 1960

CECILIA UPTON

Pretty-as-a-picture, Miss Cecilia Upton was the unanimous choice of the judges for the title of "Miss Chieftain of 1960." The versatile Sophomore education major from Rockmart adds a lot to any environment, as evidenced in the accompanying pictures. Cecilia, a member of the W.A.A., enjoys most sports, particularly swimming, dancing, and horseback riding. In the Fall she was elected to the Homecoming Court.

The lovely faces of the six beauties who comprise Cecilia's court are seen on the opposite and following pages. Betti Carole Prickett is a Senior education major, a member of Alpha Theta, the W.A.A., and is a cheerleader. Petite Nona Wood is a Sophomore education major, and a member of the W.A.A. and Alpha Theta. Freshman Gertrude Bell belongs to the W.A.A. and Phi Beta Lambda, and is majoring in business education. Dee Curtis, also a Freshman, is the secretary-treasurer of the Freshman Class, president of the Gunn House, and is a member of the W.A.A. Homecoming Queen Georgia Mozley is a Sophomore education major and belongs to the W.A.A. Sophomore Betty Arnall, a home economics major, is a cheerleader and is secretary of the Sophomore Class. She is a member of Alpha Theta and Alpha Psi.

Contestants in the 1960 Chieftain Revue were: Jean Lord, Ann Mitchell, Nona Wood, Brenda Dollar, Cecilia Upton, Dianne Eblen, Dot Brown, Betti Carole Prickett, Dottie Sullivan, Jerrie McClure, Carol Carmichael, Betty Arnall, Gayle Toney, Jane Hackney, Jimmie Lee Ridley, Georgia Mozley, Marilyn Allen, Sandra Alexander, Margaret Watson, Betty Simmons, Gertrude Bell, Dee Curtis, Emily Davis, Vi Harn, Rosemary Shipp, Maudine Abernathy.

Cecilia Upton of Rockmart is crowned "Miss Chieftain 1960" by the 1959 Queen Phyllis Lewis.

Director Tommy Pike and stage set designers Ronald Jackson and assistant David Clark pause at the evening Revue.

Judges Harrell Brooks, Pat Moore, and Mrs. C. Lee Revell watch as contestants parade before them at afternoon tea.

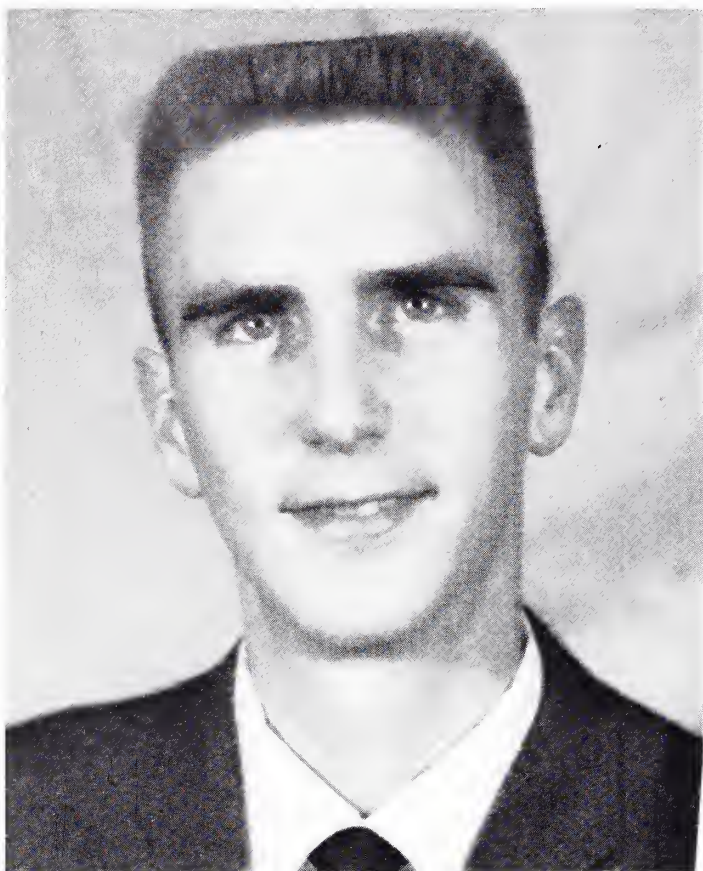

Past the reception line! Now there was refreshment and later, conversation—all a part of the process of judging.

Mrs. Revell discusses the secrets of charm and grace with a group of contestants at the tea.

Mr. Brooks talks with a group of contestants before the lead-out begins at the tea held in Gordon Watson Hall.

WHO'S WHO IN AMERICAN COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

GUS ADAIR

Seven West Georgia Seniors were honored this year by being named to WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES. The students recognized by this organization each year are nominated from approximately 750 colleges and universities. Campus nominating committees are instructed to consider in making their selections, the student's scholarship; his participation and leadership in academic and extra-curricular activities; his citizenship and service to the school; and his promise of future usefulness.

The organization awards each member a certificate of recognition, presented on the campus either at graduation or earlier in the year. Also, it provides a placement or reference service to assist members seeking employment, scholarships, or fellowships.

CHIEFTAIN SALUTES

The 1960 Chieftain salutes the underclassmen of West Georgia College. Represented in this year's select group are six Juniors, six Sophomores, and four Freshmen. These students are carefully nominated by a student-faculty committee, and then voted on by the student body. These are the students who give freely of their time to worthwhile school activities, are outstanding in leadership and scholarship, and whose past record gives them a promise of future usefulness. The 1960 Chieftain salutes these students and all others who, because of their attitudes and activities, deserve recognition.

Miss Georgia Mozley wears a majestic smile as she reigns over the 1959-60 Homecoming Dance as Homecoming Queen.

1959-60 HOMECOMING

Members of the Homecoming Court are: Vi Harn, Nona Wood, Cecilia Upton, Queen Georgia Mozley, Dianne Eblen, Dottie Sullivan, Brenda Dollar.

A HARVEST OF FUN

Homecoming, 1959, was a big success despite the fact that for the first time in years there was no football game. There was, however, an intramural soccer game featuring the Cherokees and the All Stars. The contest ended in a tie and was later played off, giving the All Stars the trophy.

Various other activities were carried out during the afternoon. Some of the dormitories held open house, and Mandeville Hall was the scene of a lovely afternoon tea.

Highlighting the weekend were a dance and the crowning of the Homecoming Queen, Miss Georgia Mozley, a Sophomore from Marietta. The Auburn Knights furnished the music for the traditional dance.

Miss Dianne Eblen, a Sophomore from Atlanta, was chosen Maid of Honor.

The Auditorium and the student lounge were decorated appropriately for the season with corn stalks, pumpkins, and cornucopias—carrying out the harvest theme.

The Auburn Knights provided music for dancing.

Georgia Mozley is crowned 1959 Homecoming Queen by President Ingram.

Sandra Mullinax and Betty Simmons vie for the ball in an exciting soccer game.

RAT WEEK

RAT WEEK

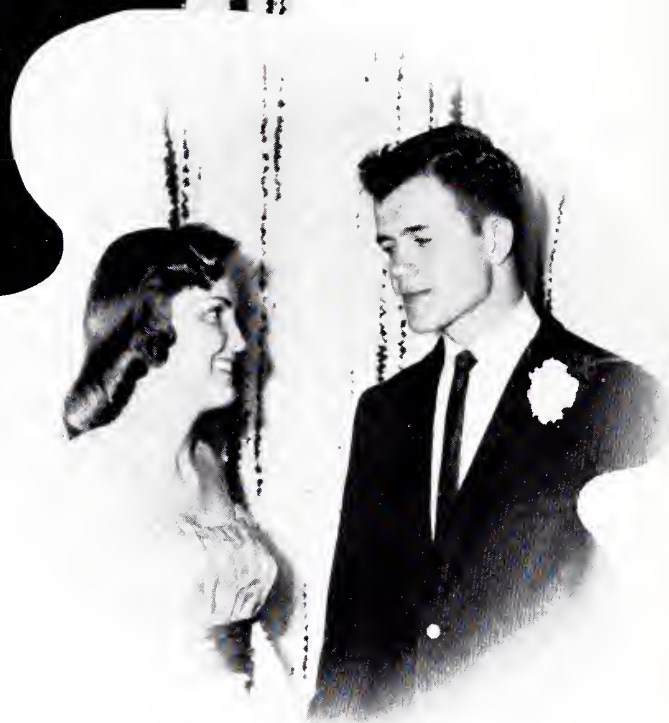

One of the highlights of a freshman's year is his initiation, usually known as Rat Week. The 1959-60 rats could be recognized by their long red string tails attached to their clothes which were worn wrong-side-out. The rat week program was composed of three main days—work day, talent day, and a field day. There was a penalty for any rat who failed to carry out his orders on work day.

At a special assembly program the rats demonstrated their talents on a special radio broadcast over station WGC. The highlight of the field day was the choosing of Mr. and Miss Rat.

President Ingram crowns Dianne Eblen and Scotty Davis, King and Queen of Hearts at the Valentine Dance held February 13.

The Sweetheart Court was composed of: Ruth McAfee and Sam Maxey, Laura McBroom and Jerry Ingram, Sally Stephens and Emil Sutton, Vi Harn and Arthur Dee Moore, Diane Dixon and Jerry Studdard, and Emily Ivey and Bob Sanders.

BRENDA DOLLAR

The 1960 May Day festivities were reigned over by lovely Brenda Dollar as May Queen and her charming Maid of Honor, Dianne Eblen.

FINE ARTS

SPEECH AND DRAMATICS

Speech at West Georgia College gives each student an opportunity to participate in a variety of speech activities that enable him to gain poise and confidence and become a more effective, well-adjusted person, as well as a better speaker.

Through an introduction to theater, the student learns the various aspects of planning, organizing, and producing a play.

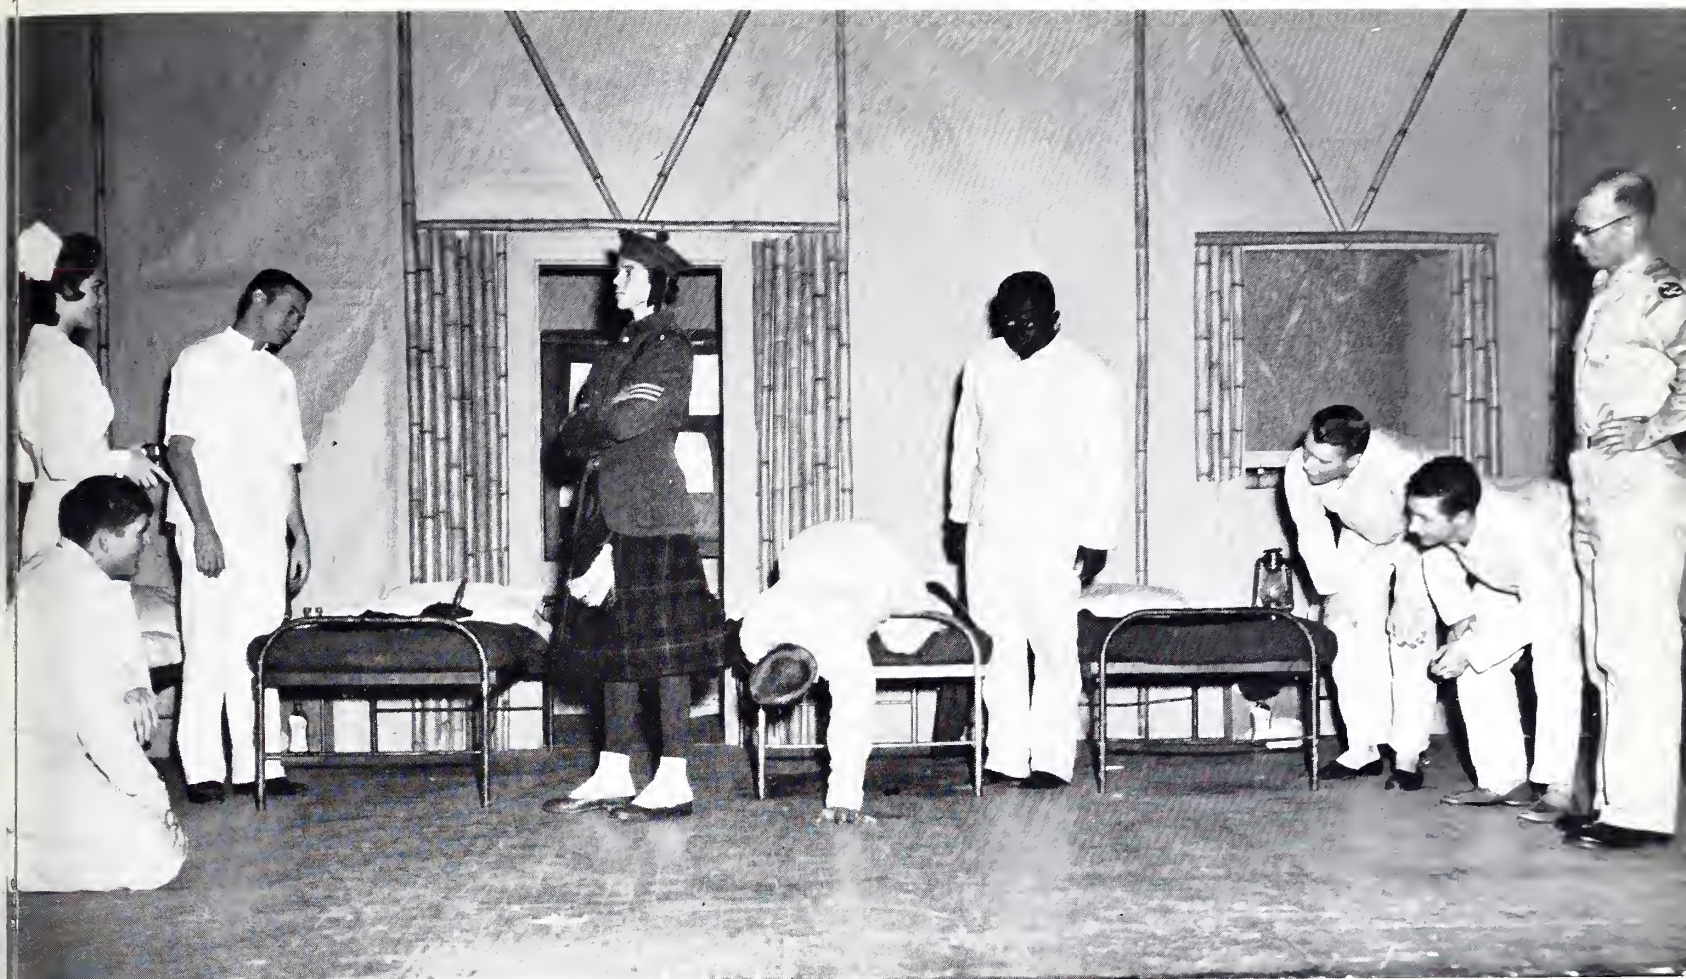

The theater production each quarter is a highly valuable and enjoyable experience for the cast, the stage crew, and the audience. This year, under the capable direction of Wallace Buice, three outstanding performances were successfully presented—The Hasty Heart, The Barretts of Wimpole Street, and West Georgia's first musical comedy, Spring for Sure.

The leading roles in The Hasty Heart were played by Linda Adams, who portrayed a lone nurse in an army hospital during World War I, and Donald Groover, who played the part of Lachie, a Scotch patient in love with his nurse.

The Colonel (John Teet) has a serious talk with Lachie, concerning the Scot's future.

Tommy (Wesley Blalock) and Kiwi, played by Maurice Shaver, battle with fly swatters during their stay at the army hospital in a lighter moment of The Hasty Heart.

Henrietta Barrett, a younger sister of Elizabeth Barrett, is reprimanded by her father, Edward Moulton Barrett (Wallace Buice), in a scene from "The Barretts of Wimpole Street."

"THE BARRETTS OF WIMPOLE STREET"

"The Barretts of Wimpole Street" was presented by the West Georgia Players on March 3 and 4, 1960.

Linda Adams starred in the famous role of Elizabeth Barrett, who lived in constant fear of her domineering father (Wallace Buice), until she courageously eloped with Robert Browning, played by W.H. Smith.

Other members of the cast include Bobbi Thomas, Sandra McWhorter, Jimmy Todd, Don Reese, Sonny Burt, Suellen Landrum, Eldrid Wood, and Peggy Funderburk.

"The Barretts of Wimpole Street" is a true story of two famous English poets, who lived in nineteenth century England. It is a captivating story of a world renowned romance.

Bobbi Thomas pertly portrayed the part of Henrietta Barrett, a vivacious member of the Barrett family.

Members of the choir are: S. Burke, J. Scoggins, B. Berry, E. Causey, C. Hale, G. Yates, L. Bolch, E. King, M. Allen, M. Hardin, R. Kelley, E. Wood, E. McClure, F. Wright, P. Free, A. Phillips, C. Earnest, J. Kenerly, J. Young, S. Foster, S. King, M. Thompson, D. Whitney, J. Donohue, J. Mayes, D. Akins, L. Lowman, W. Griner, A. Glenn, L. Power, J. Nix, B. Garrett, G. Green, L. Roberts, D. Cole.

Choir Officers are: Sara Foster, Pres.; Earl McClure, Vice Pres.; and Emily Causey, Sec.-Treas.

THE COLLEGE CHOIR

"The West Georgia College Music Department presents" . . .

These are the words often heard in high school auditoriums throughout the state of Georgia. The West Georgia College Choir has planned tours on which it visits high schools and churches. A small group called the Concert Choir sings at various civic functions. The programs on these tours include numbers by the entire choir and special numbers by the soloists.

West Georgia College has the reputation of always having an outstanding choir. The purpose of the choir is to provide satisfying experiences for those persons who are talented and are interested in music.

There are three main concerts given by the choir each year. The presentation of Handel's "Messiah" is the highlight of the fall quarter. The Easter concert of "The Seven Last Words" is presented during the last weeks of the winter quarter. In the spring the choir presents its annual Spring Concert.

The choir plays a major part in college life and functions, with the tours, special concerts, singing at chapel and graduation.

This is a typical scene of the choir leaving for one of its many visits to high schools, churches and civic meetings throughout the state.

Faye Wright and Earl McClure have won numerous awards and recognitions for their vocal talents.

Under the superb direction of Professor Hugh G. Deen, the college choir has achieved the reputation of being a magnificent college choral group.

Chapel Choir members include: A. Phillips, F. Wright, W. Griner, L. Bolch, M. Allen, L. Roberts, E. King, L. Power, B. Garrett, S. Foster, G. Yates, M. Harden, D. Cole, S. Burke, J. Scoggins, E. McClure, D. Akins, D. Whitney, J. Donehoo, R. Kelley.

THE "MESSIAH"

In December, the West Georgia College Music Department presented a successful production of the "Messiah," one of Handel's best known and most famous oratorios. More than two hundred voices joined in this magnificent presentation. The members of the chorus were from Bowdon, Bremen, Carrollton, Douglasville, Hapeville, Villa Rica, and Newnan. Many other cities and towns were represented by the members of the college choir, and the local church choirs were also well represented. The Columbus Chamber Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. George Johnson, accompanied the choirs during the performance. Prominent guest artists added the final finesse to the performance.

Two hundred voices joined to present the "Messiah" in conjunction with the West Georgia College Music Department.

ART DEPARTMENT

In the Art Education course students get a chance at several forms of crafts. The ancient form of the potter's wheel is a popular tool with the students. To stand still on one foot while kicking the treadle with the other and trying to mold the clay with your hands is a difficult feat. The first attempts usually bring laughs from the observers as well as the struggling student. Nevertheless some creditable objects are turned out on the potter's wheel.

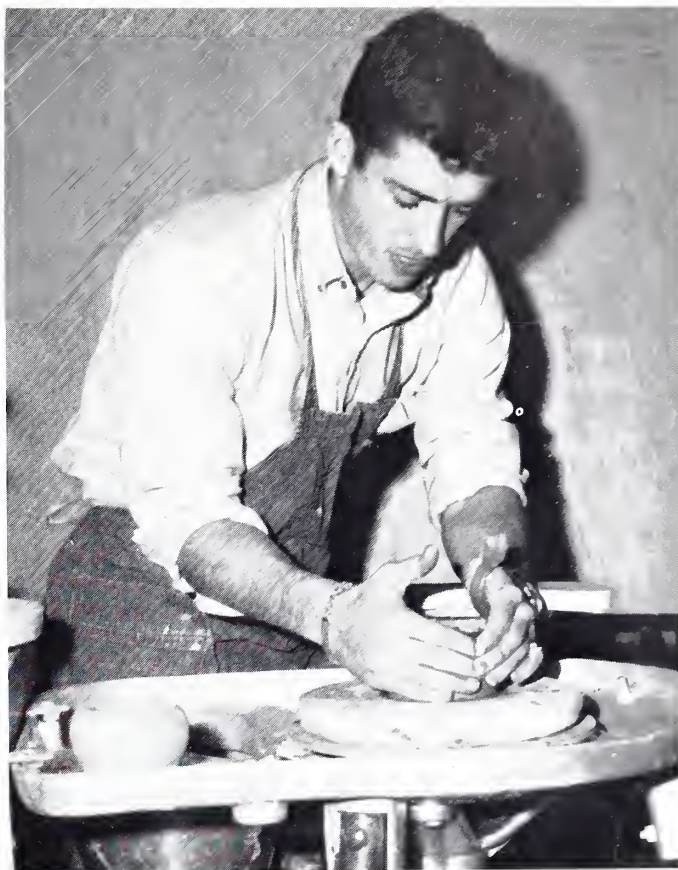

The class making paper sculpture enjoys watching the mess of paper, wire, and paste emerge into a sturdy piece of sculpture of characters from children's literature.

Students also weave some materials, possibly a mat or table scarf of their own design. Cloth will never look the same to these students as it did before they began measuring string and yarn in the looms.

The Art Department has recently added three new courses. Two of these are beginning design courses, that include a variety of projects entitled Art Structure. The first one is very much like the first Art Education course. It is a course covering beginning design and rudimentary principles of art. The second one is a continuation of this with more emphasis on projects to give the student a chance to use the theories learned in the beginning course.

The Art Appreciation course is planned to give students a good start in understanding some art qualities that have been important to artists for ages. There is a systematic study of painting, drawing, and architecture as well as some of the minor arts.

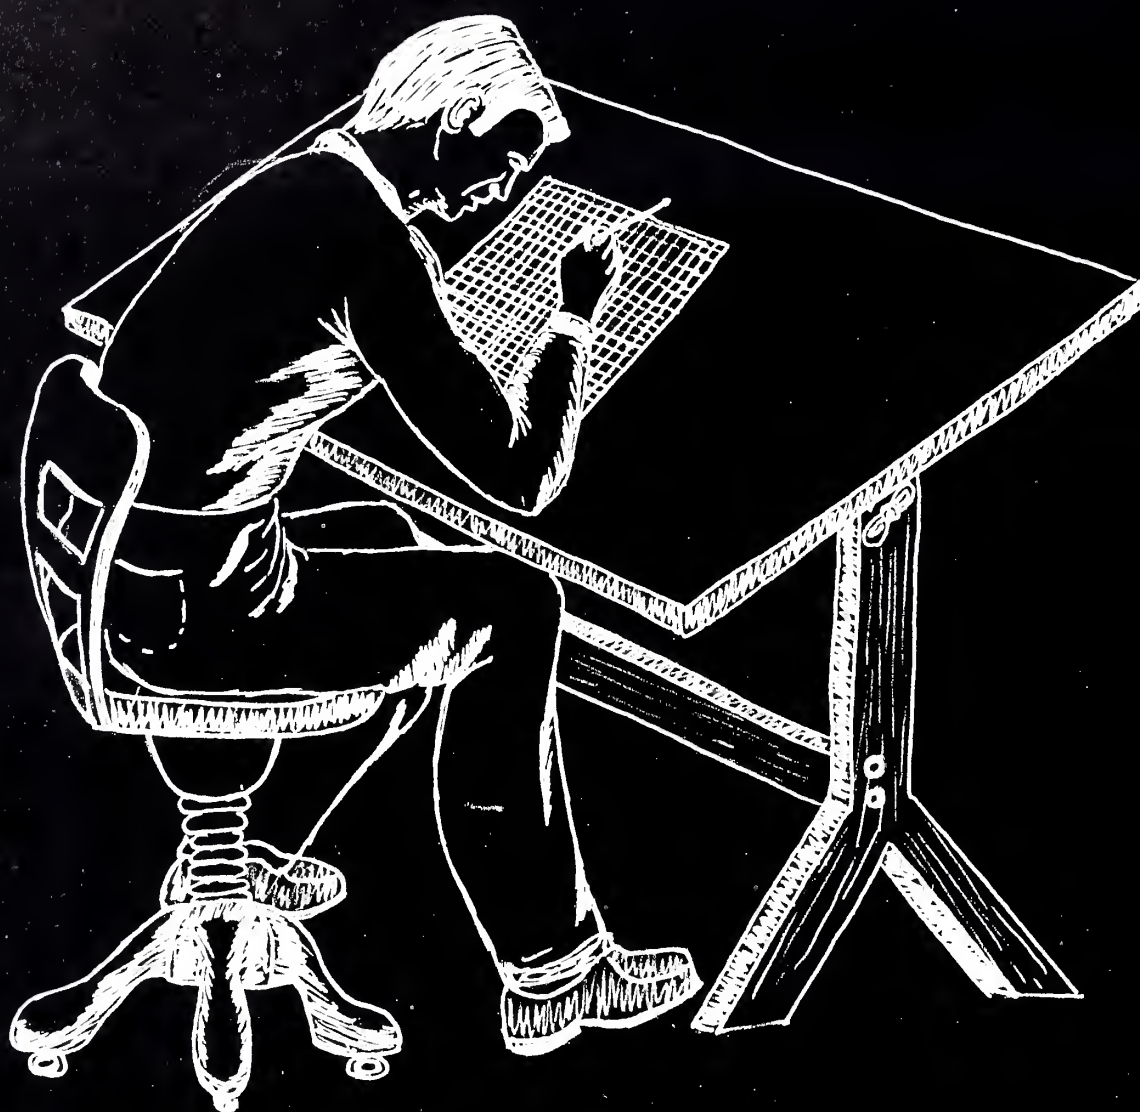

Art 332 students construct paper sculpture characters from "The Wizard of Oz."

Arthur Dee Moore is busily engaged turning out an object on the potter's wheel in the Art Department.

Mr. Jobson and Mrs. Peggy Hughes look on as Mrs. Carleen Littlefield works with the table loom.

ACTIVITIES

Gus Adair holds the distinction of being the first Senior to serve as President of the Student Council.

Charlie Roberts is shown studying the constitution of the newly formed President's Club, organized by the Student Council.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council was established to give the students a means of governing themselves. To this end, the Council formulates campus policies, acts as the mediator between students and administration, and coordinator of student activities.

The membership of the Student Council consists of representatives of the dormitories, representatives of the day students, and all elected officers. It is the most representative—and perhaps most influential—organization on the campus.

The purposes of this organization are to promote the physical comfort of the students; to encourage their physical, intellectual and moral growth; to furnish opportunities for experiencing acceptable patterns of group living; to give practice in good citizenship based on democratic procedures; and to promote friendship and good will.

The job of Secretary-Treasurer has been efficiently performed by Dianne Eblen.

The Student Council members are responsible for all campus elections.

Dr. John M. Martin is the helpful and understanding sponsor of the Student Council.

Charlie Roberts presents Ruth McAfee and Sam Maxey prizes for the best costumes at the Halloween Ball.

THE CHIEFTAIN

The first issue of The Chieftain, West Georgia College yearbook, was printed in 1934. Since then, it has received first honor ratings several times by the National Scholastic Press Association.

On the following and preceding pages, the story of another year in the history of West Georgia College is recorded. It has been the aim of The Chieftain staff to produce an accurate account of the day-to-day life and special events of the campus.

The Chieftain, however, does more than provide a pictorial recording of the college's activities and progress. It offers students who are interested in journalism an opportunity to develop their talents in this field.

THE WEST GEORGIAN

The student newspaper, The West Georgian, is rated among the best small college newspapers in the South.

It was first published in 1933, the initial year of existence of West Georgia College. On several occasions it has received first class honor ratings by the Associated Collegiate Press.

Appointment of the editor is made by the Editorial Board following personal interviews with the candidates. Other staff members are chosen by tryouts which test their creative writing abilities.

The paper is published three times each quarter, and it is prepared entirely by the student members of the staff—they write it, edit it, proofread it, and lay it out, working directly with the downtown firm which prints it.

Working with The West Georgian gives the students a graphic glimpse of at least one phase of the world of communications.

ORGANIZATIONS

The Presiding Officer of the President's Club is Charlie Roberts, and the Secretary is Sandra Walker.

PRESIDENT'S CLUB

One of the newest and most powerful organizations on campus is the President's Club. It is under the direct supervision of the Student Council and is headed by the Vice President of the Student Council.

Membership in the President's Club consists of the presidents of all recognized clubs, organizations, and classes of the West Georgia College. To be a member of this organization is one of the top privileges that a student can achieve.

The main purpose of the President's Club is to promote better campus life and closer harmony among the students. This is done by organized and planned activities. This club also serves as an outlet through which the presidents can come together and discuss the plans and functions of their own individual organizations.

The organization is off to a vigorous beginning which indicates even greater accomplishments in the future.

WOMEN'S HOUSE COUNCILS THE MINISTERIAL FELLOWSHIP

Each Women's House Council is comprised of the president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and counselors. The councils function under the direct supervision of the hostess and indirect supervision of the Dean of Women. The councils seek to assist women dormitory students in adjusting to group living, building self control, and upholding a high standard of living.

The Ministerial Fellowship is a new organization designed to promote fellowship and understanding among the ministerial students, to set a Christian example for the student body, and to cooperate in other school activities as needed. The membership of this organization is open to any ministerial student attending West Georgia College.

Members of the Ministerial Fellowship are: Charles Barnes, Johnny Allen, Leland Bagwell, Dr. Martin, Sponsor, Herbert Chisenall, Glenn Suggs, Allen Martin, Kenneth Deitle, Asbury Walton, Frank Johnson.

Officers of Men's Dormitory Council are: David Clark, Pres.; Peddy Parker, V. Pres.; Robert Sanders, Sec.-Treas.

David Clark presides over a meeting of the Men's Dormitory Council.

MEN'S DORMITORY COUNCIL

The Men's Dormitory Council is an organization formed to represent the men dormitory students on the campus of West Georgia College. The men elect their own representatives. Weekly meetings are held to discuss and promote projects, such as a blood drive each quarter. These blood drives have placed West Georgia College as the number one donor in Carroll County.

The Council also sponsors many activities for the men on campus. This year, of interest to many students, was the bridge tournament and the pool tournament. It sponsored a hay ride Homecoming weekend, and was responsible for interesting campus activities throughout the year.

The Council, when necessary, acts as a judge of disciplinary problems.

Members include: Charles Beggs, Cliff Mell, Glenn Suggs, Freddy Prater, Eddy Holliday, Robert Sanders, David Bynum, Peddy Parker, David Clark, Mr. Holland, Faculty Advisor, Dale Hampton, Bob Mooney.

MEN'S COUNSELORS

The Men's Dormitory Counselors' primary purpose is to create an atmosphere conducive to pleasant living in the men's dormitories.

They function under the philosophy of promoting a positive program, which the counselors feel has been well received by the men.

The counselors meet bi-weekly to discuss any situation that has arisen. In these meetings, future policies and actions are determined. A result of one such meeting was the Student-Faculty basketball game, now an annual event.

Gus Adair is Pres. and Ronald Jackson is Sec.-Treas. of the Counselors.

Melson Counselors are Thomas Dempsey, Tommy Pike, and Jerry Studdard.

Aycock Counselors are James Bagley, Jerry Edwards, Jerry Ingram, and Jack Benson.

Emil Sutton is the Counselor at Hamm Hall and Ralph Hughes is Counselor at Rodgers Hall.

ALPHA PSI

Mary Tyler, Pres., serves punch to Miss Womack at Alpha Psi meeting.

Alpha Psi, Home Economics Club, is affiliated with the State and National Home Economics Clubs. Since its organization in 1933, the club has sought to instill desirable personality traits and qualities of citizenship and leadership in its members.

Membership in Alpha Psi consists of young women interested in homemaking and in seeking improved methods of Home Economics. Emphasis is placed on the students taking responsibilities in Christian homemaking and helpfulness in community development.

Each spring the club presents a fashion review, with the girls modeling their own creations.

Other Alpha Psi officers are: Peggy Funderburk, Publicity Chairman; Nancy Lee, Historian; Betty Arnall, Treasurer; Fay Pilgrim, Vice President; Carolyn Collins, Secretary; Ann Evans, Publicity Chairman.

Officers of the V.R.A. Council are: Ginger Creech, Vice Pres.; Joyce Nelms, Sec.-Treas.; and Barbara Barrett, Pres.

VOLUNTARY RELIGIOUS ASSOCIATION

Every student at West Georgia is a member of the Voluntary Religious Association, and the activities of the organization are planned and directed by the V.R.A. Council.

The Voluntary Religious Association is an interdenominational group, whose purpose is to arouse and stimulate spiritual life and thoughts on the campus. A vesper service is conducted each Wednesday night, with various denominations in charge. A Religious Emphasis Week is also sponsored by the V.R.A. during the fall quarter.

The speaker for Religious Emphasis Week was Dr. Theodore Weber of the Candler School of Theology, Emory University.

MU ZETA ALPHA

Mu Zeta Alpha, a scientific honor society, is restricted to outstanding men and women students interested in the fields of science and mathematics.

An average of B in science and an overall average of C must be maintained in order to belong to this group.

Mu Zeta Alpha is a service fraternity which obtains scholarships for worthy students, plans and directs an annual science convention for high school students, and holds seminars.

Life on a microscopic slide is examined by Mu Zeta Alpha members.

Officers of Mu Zeta Alpha are: Earl Strickland, Pres.; Robert Stone, V.P.; Bivian Holcomb, Sec.; James Bagley, Treas.

Officers of Alpha Theta are Gertrude Bell, Junior Reception Chairman; Vi Harn, Sec.-Treas.; David Bynum, President; Peggy Reese, Vice-President; and Bobbi Thomas, Senior Reception Chairman.

Buice and Martin represent Alpha Theta in assembly show.

ALPHA THETA

Students interested in any form of dramatics such as acting, directing, and stage management are fortunate to have the opportunity to affiliate with Alpha Theta. This club seeks to instill in each member an over-all concept of the ideals and practices of the aspects of drama.

Alpha Theta meets twice a month, and the main topic of discussion at these meetings is the play which the club sponsors each quarter. In these plays actors and actresses and crew members demonstrate their abilities. West Georgia has always been rated high in the field of drama, creditable largely to Alpha Theta.

Other activities of Alpha Theta are the annual Beaux Arts Ball, and the Awards Banquet, recognizing the year's best play, actor, actress, and crew members.

PHI BETA LAMBDA

Phi Beta Lambda officers are: Bobbi Thomas, Sec.; Bill Chandler, Treas.; Sandra Walker, Pres.; Mr. James Overton and Miss Dora Peete, Sponsors; Antti Saarinen, Vice-Pres.; and Brenda Dollar, Reporter.

The membership of Phi Beta Lambda includes many business majors at West Georgia College who are interested in developing the necessary qualifications of business.

This organization seeks to promote interest in the business world, and to help train young people to assume responsible positions as the future leaders of business.

Phi Beta Lambda was formerly known as Future Business Leaders of America. On January 14, 1960, it officially became a college fraternity with a new title and symbols.

Dr. Ingram, speaker at initiation of Phi Beta Lambda, is being served punch by Pat White.

S. N. E. A.

The Student National Education Association incorporates many West Georgia students. It is a member of the National Education Association and the Georgia Education Association, from which teachers receive advice, aid, and cooperation in bettering the teaching profession.

The S.N.E.A. strives to plan programs which will promote interest and study of the problems of teaching, and the development of a professional awareness on the part of students planning to enter the teaching profession.

Growth toward becoming a better teacher can be gained in this organization, through its activities and associations with leaders in the profession.

Dr. Nix discusses the teaching profession with S.N.E.A. members.

S.N.E.A. Officers Betty Bennett, Pres., Carol Carmichael, Vice-Pres., Betty Thomas, Sec. and Treas., and Rosalie Row, Reporter, invite future teachers to join their organization.

EL CIRCULO ESPANOL

El Circulo Espanol strives to promote the Spanish language and the cultures of all Spanish speaking people. Organizations of its nature also foster better relationships between the United States and foreign countries.

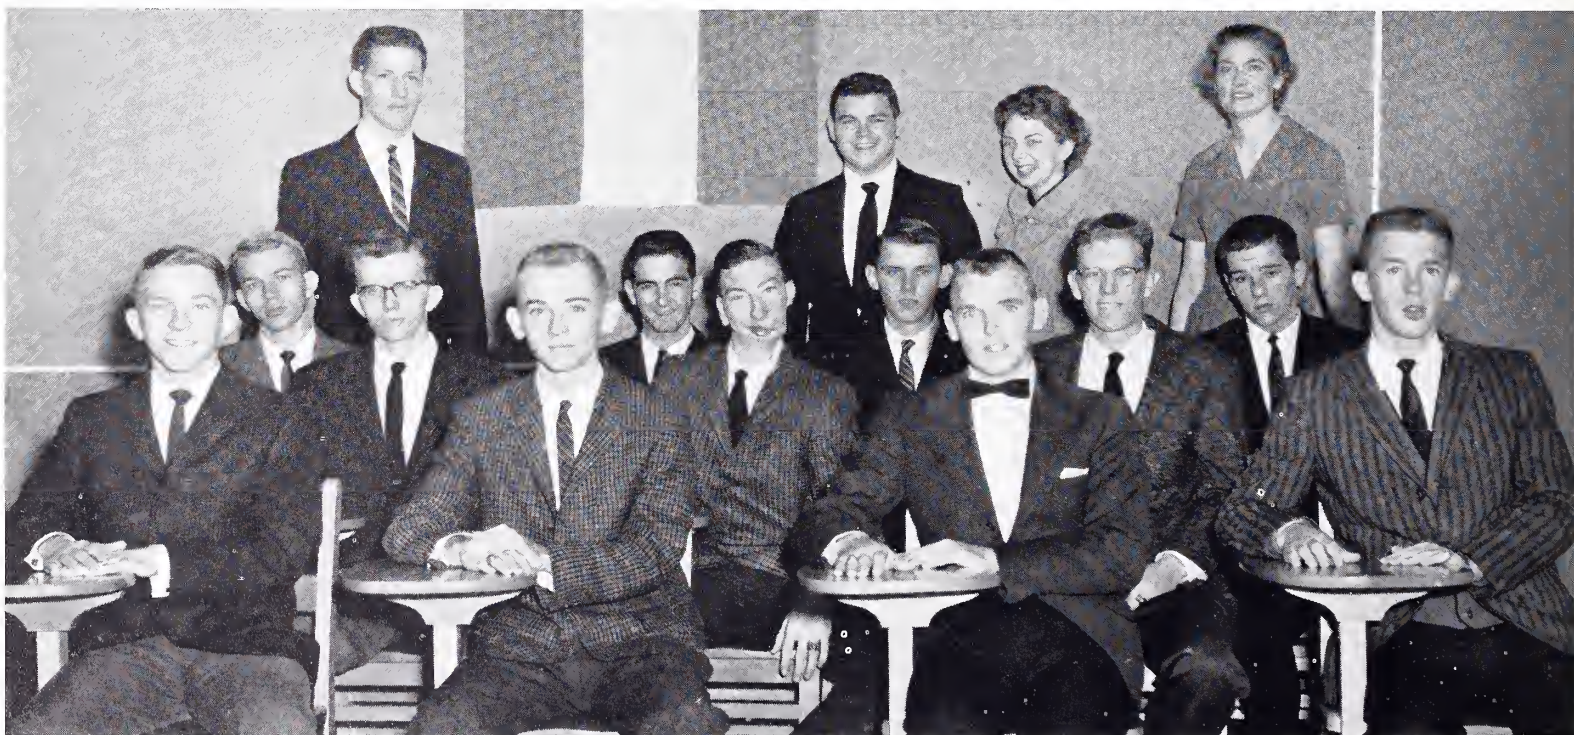

The club is comprised mostly of those students who are currently studying the Spanish language. However, membership in this club is open to anyone who is interested in the Spanish language, Spain, Latin America, and their music, history, and culture.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

Those students who belong to Le Cercle Francais not only become more familiar with the French language, but they also become more fully acquainted with the customs of France and develop a better understanding of the French people.

Meetings are held monthly, where French life, culture, language, and history are discussed. Understanding people from other lands enables us to maintain an appreciation of them and their language.

Le Cercle Francais members are: Roger Eidson, Bill Hames, Wendell Eberhart, Dwayne Cole, Sammy Shuler, Harry Rakestraw, Julian Robinson, Cliff Mell, Don Reese, Walter Carr, Bobby Pickrell, James Scoggins, Pres.; Eddie Shell, Vice-Pres.; Leona Bolch, Sec.-Treas.; and Mrs. Gwendolyn Stanford, Sponsor.

DEBATE CLUB

The Debate Club gives students at West Georgia an opportunity to debate questions of local, state, or national interest. Much research and study is required, plus certain proficiency in speech, if the debator is to win his case over his opponent. The club each year sponsors the West Georgia Intercollegiate Debate Tournament. Also it invites high schools to debate here, and often judges their matches.

John Worthington, Aub Grecian, and Josh Scoggins were leaders in the organization of the History Club.

HISTORY CLUB

The History Club is one of the college's newest organizations. It has been established primarily for Social Science majors and also as a means of promoting interest in the Social Sciences.

The programs often feature noted authorities on history.

CIRCLE K

The Circle K is sponsored by the Carrollton Kiwanis Club. It is made up of college men with outstanding records in scholarship and leadership, its main functions being to prepare the men for leadership in the future, to promote good fellowship, and to promote the civic welfare of the college.

It proposes to develop within the members the high degree of serviceable citizenship and social service as exemplified by the constitution and by-laws of Kiwanis International.

Mr. Wirsing and Pres. David Clark make plans for the convention in Savannah.

The Circle K has played a major role in forming Circle K districts in other parts of the state. Its sponsor, Floyd Wirsing, has been a prominent figure in this respect; he is one of two state Circle K chairmen for the Kiwanis Club of Georgia.

Jack Benson, Treas.; Charles Ray, Sec.; and Jerry Ingram, V. Pres., are reviewing the minutes of the last meeting.

Three members of the W Club have a session with Coach Richard Ottinger. They are Pat Cain, Peddy Parker, Coach Ottinger, and Don Bonner.

LETTERMAN'S CLUB

The Letterman's Club began in 1938, getting its origin from the Athletic Association. This club is open only to boys who have lettered in some sport on this campus.

The main purpose of the club is to instill in the minds of young men the need of recreation and physical fitness. To obtain these goals, the club sponsors such activities as intramural football and basketball, and other sports events.

Letterman's Club officers are: Jerry Ingram, Vice Pres.; Emil Sutton, Pres.; and Thomas Dempsey, Sec.-Treas.

BOOSTER CLUB

Booster Club officers are: Betty Garrett, Publicity; Cathryn Redwine, V. Pres.; Betty Thomas, Pres.; Corra Costley, Sec.-Treas.

The Booster Club is one of the new organizations on the campus. It meets monthly and plans campaigns and activities to promote a better school spirit and a greater atmosphere of cooperation on campus functions. Through posters, signs, rallies and the chartering of buses to games, it tries to bolster interest in sports events. The general purpose of the organization is to promote school spirit, to practice and be examples of good sportsmanship, and to stimulate a stronger interest in school affairs.

Gloria Ogletree, Jane Hackney, Judy Brown, and Sherley Wilson prepare for Homecoming weekend.

Tribe Chieftains are: Ann Wright and Pat O'Neal—Cherokees; Phyllis Lovvorn and Nona Wood—Seminoles; Charlotte Mozley and Dot Brown—Sioux; Mary Moore and Pat Harbin—Apaches.

W.A.A. Officers are: Ila Ann Maddox, Recorder; Joyce Pike, Sec.; Terry McNabb, Vice Pres.; Pat Harbin, Publicity; Sylvia Kelley, Pres.; Ann Wright, Intramural Manager; and Dot Brown, Treas.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The purpose of the Women's Athletic Association is to serve the recreational needs of all the women students on the West Georgia campus, and to promote interest in athletics and develop good sportsmanship and skill in sports, and through its sponsorship assist in several co-educational activities such as the Christmas Dance, May Day, and Fun Night.

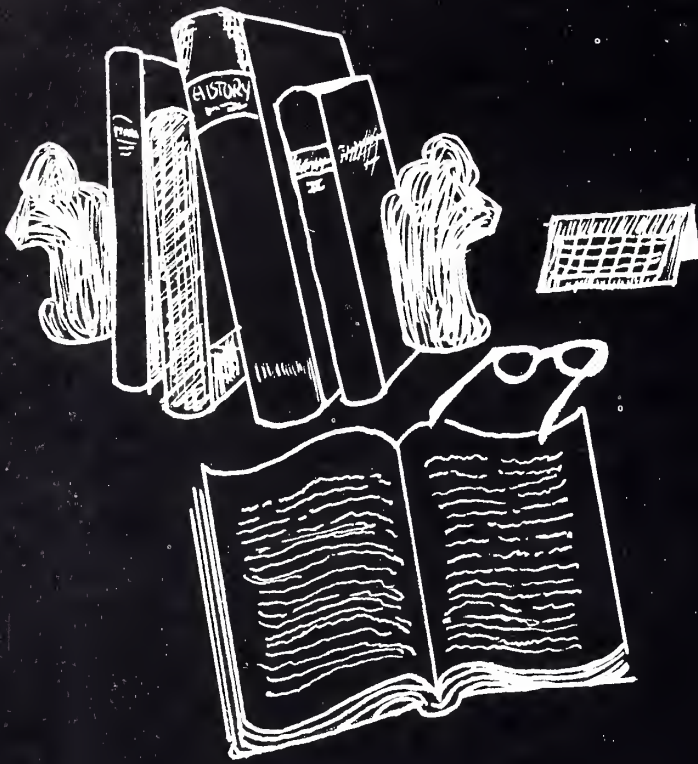

The organization is made up of four tribes, Apache,

Cherokee, Seminole, and Sioux. The tribes compete in the following activities: soccer, speedball, basketball, volleyball, and swimming.

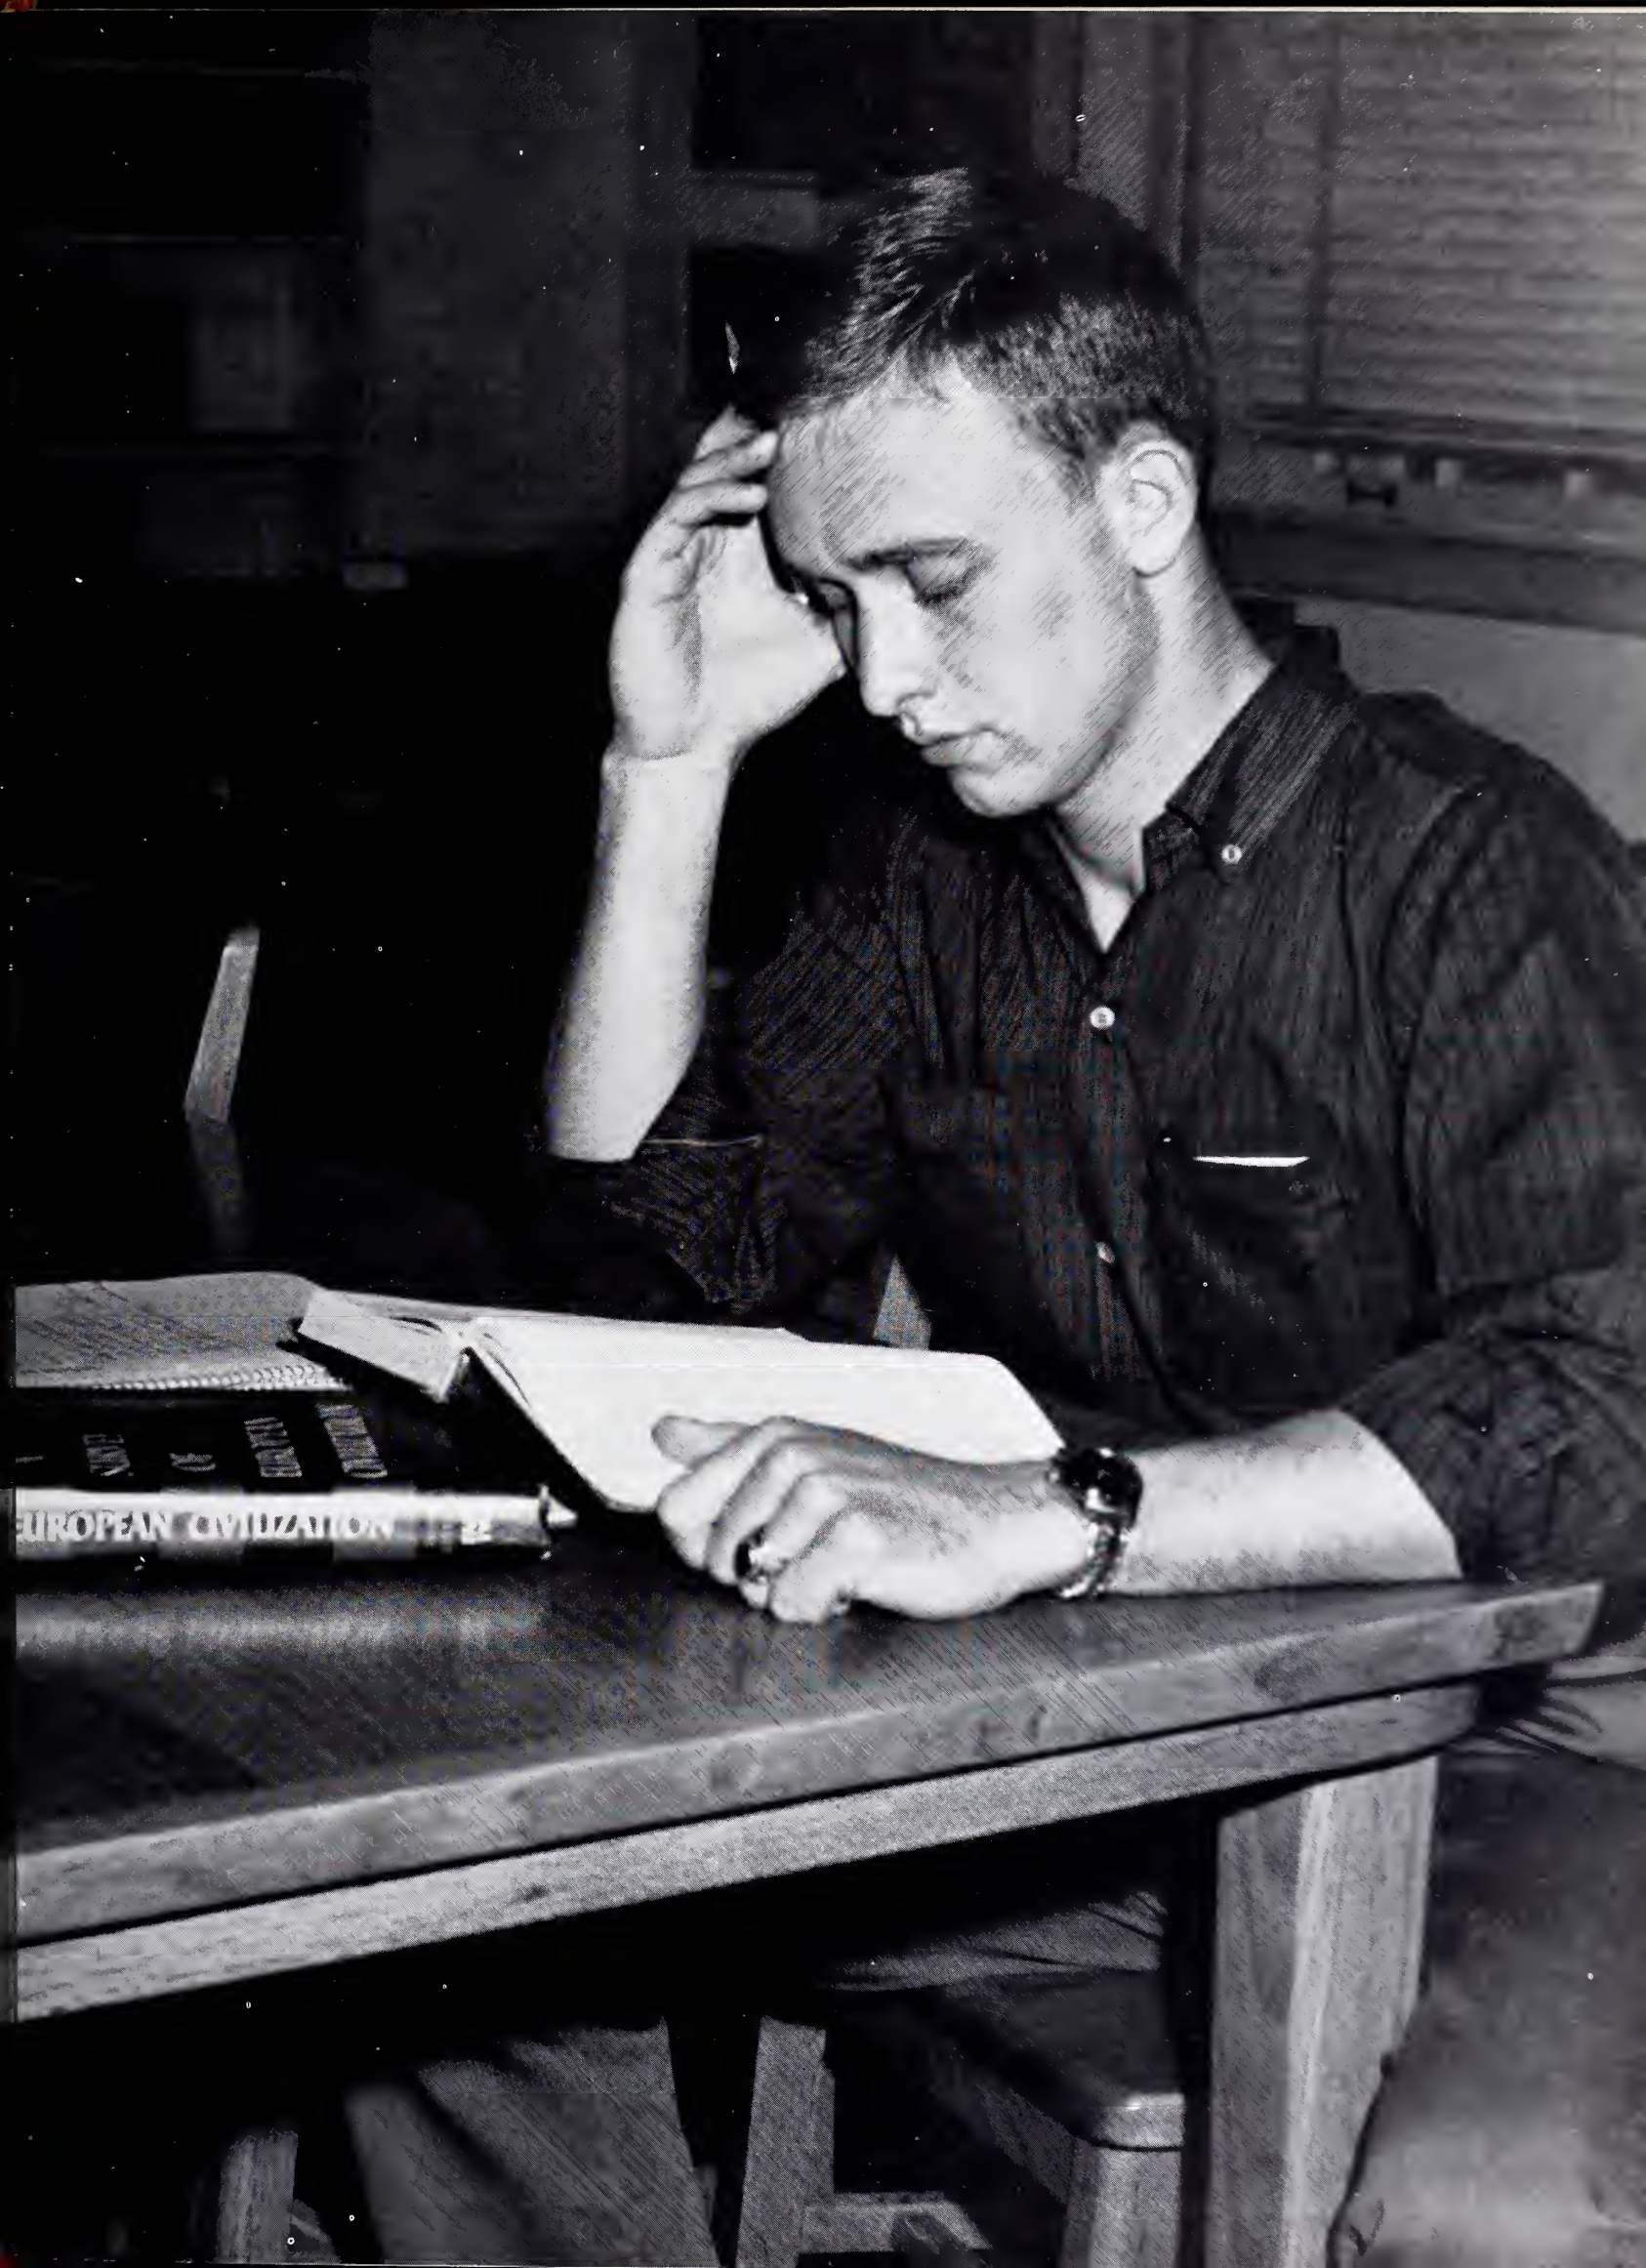

Recognition is given to outstanding members according to a point system. By participating in the intramural program a member may earn the W.A.A. pin, and the coveted W.A.A. sweater guard.

The W.A.A. is composed of: D. Sullivan, P. Free, M. Gibson, E. Chambers, J. Pike, C. Mozley, M. Moore, C. Upton, A. Wright, P. O'Neal, B. Thomas, N. Castleman, P. Harbin, J. Register, A. Holloway, M. Hamill, T. Haynes, M. Tyler, S. Echols, A. Evans, J. Edwards, M. E. Wright, N. Wilder, C. Carmichael, M. Jones, N. Wood, L. Hogue, M. Allen, J. Lord, S. Finney, H. Murphey, J. Stogner, P. Funderburk, B. Bennett, S. Kelley, J. L. Ridley, D. Brown, M. Abernathy, T. McNabb, M. Watson, J. Hackney, D. Brown, G. Ogletree, B. Thomas, L. Bennett, J. Nix, A. Ballenger, J. Farrar, G. Toney, B. Dollar, S. Alexander, R. Shipp, B. Simmons, J. McClure, D. Curtis, V. Harn, A. Mitchell, E. Davis, G. Mozley, G. Bell, D. Eblen, B. Arnall, Miss Dorothy McNabb, Sponsor.

COLLEGE

My Dear Editors:

Your invitation to address the student body through your publication, The Chieftain, pleases me. As I have grown older I have become more sentimental about West Georgia College, its alumni, its students, and its personnel. As you know this marks the close of a long and happy career as the president of this institution. Through the doors of this college have come hundreds of young women and young men. In my judgment they have benefited by the experience here. The institution, through its staff, has sought to instruct and to inspire them, not only in subject matter but in acquiring such characteristics as simplicity, honesty, humility, competency, curiosity, the search for truth, and a healthful respect for the dignity of every individual. All of us are human with the frailties of mankind and hence many mistakes have been made and injustices have happened but these mistakes were not premeditated or meant to hurt.

As I see West Georgia College on the eve of my departure, I hope that the institution will not mean all things to all men. It seems to me it will be necessary for this institution to pursue only a few objectives to which it is dedicated. These have been a good education which we call a general education; the preparation of teachers for the public school; and the development of all students to take their places in society with confidence and assurance. Those desiring special education or graduate degrees should transfer to the universities where they are more prepared to do these services or training and education. Personally, I would like to see the institution remain a small institution. In that way we can maintain a friendly campus life and promote desirable qualities of human concern which seem to grow out of such a situation. I am conscious of the fact that all of us like bigness now and the tendency is that way. But sometimes bigness swallows the individual.

This letter perhaps is too long. However, it simply grows out of affectionate concern for all who come here and a desire that many of the virtues of the institution will be carried on by my successors in the years ahead.

You do not know that I came here as a young unmarried man who in off-hours slipped around as you do to have my dates with one of the young teachers; I married that teacher here; our only daughter was born here and became a graduate of West Georgia College; and my friends are here.

To the thousands of alumni I send my continued best wishes and to you who are enrolled and others who are graduating, my blessings and concern. I think I will like this issue of The Chieftain. As the College improves, The Chieftain, which reflects the activities of college life, improves also.

Cordially,
Irvine S. Ingram
President

Editors Epitaph

Emil Sutton! did you get those golf pictures made this morning? What do you mean, half of the team didn't appear and you had to postpone it?

These pictures don't fit these layouts! They'll have to be redrawn. Did you really think that a 5x7 horizontal picture would fit into a 3½x5 vertical space, Jerrie?

Butch, none of the 30 people in this club picture are named. Will you or Linda please get them listed within the next ten minutes?

Has anyone seen Nat? He has to take a picture right this minute, and I can't locate him.

The preceding conversations are familiar ones indeed. They are representative of many of the problems that were bravely met, handled, and conquered by the 1960 Chieftain staff.

The 1960 Chieftain staff had its trials and tribulations. There were many times when Sylvia and I both felt despondent about the whole thing. This was especially true at mid-term when I checked my grades . . . and when Sylvia discovered that she was behind in all of her classes. The week we went to press was a week of mass confusion and the only way we could do anything about it was to work our way out of it. Tommy Pike, Ruth, Sam, and Sylvia all can testify that many hours were spent in the student office, long after everyone else had retired from the day's activities.

On these pages, another year in the history of West Georgia College is recorded. It is you—the students, the faculty, and the administration—who have made this year the success that it has been. Each of you has played your part, no matter how small, in the progress of West Georgia College.

West Georgia has long since made a name for itself as a junior college; now it is taking its first steps forward as a senior institution. Each year offers proof of its progress, this past year especially. There was a greatly increased enrollment, and to facilitate these additional students, more classroom and dormitory space was provided in the concrete form of a new Education Building and an annex to Mandeville Dormitory. Also appearing on our campus this year for the first time was a new maintenance warehouse, a modern clinic, and a much improved library.

Many changes and additions were made in the curriculum. They came about as an outgrowth of West Georgia's entry into the four year classification. The school now offers degrees in Mathematics, English, Social Science, and Education.

We (Sylvia and myself) are pleased that we had the opportunity to edit your yearbook. Never would I be able to express what editing the 26th volume of The Chieftain has meant to us. We trust that the edition which you now hold in your hands meets your expectations. Because then we will know that none of the endless hours we have spent in its preparation will have been in vain.

Your yearbook constitutes a resumé of all of the scholastic, athletic, and social events that were integral parts of your life on the campus of West Georgia, this year.

To those on the staff, who worked so diligently in the preparation of their individual sections, I would like to express my gratification. Especially to Tommy Pike, Associate Editor, who was in charge of the second annual beauty review. Much thought and many hours of preparation were involved in this production, as its success attested.

Joyce Pike bravely accepted the job of Business Manager. The task of selling advertisements is not always an easy one, but it is necessary as a means of helping to defray the expenses involved in the publishing of a yearbook.

To those faculty members, especially our sponsors, who have given us their understanding sympathy and advice, we are grateful.

It's all over now—the worries, the frustrations, the seemingly endless hours of toil. We hope that you are pleased with the product which has been our privilege and pleasure to prepare for you.
